ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with deep regret that the KVGS has reluctantly accepted the resignation of Mr. Edward Virgin, Sr., as its researcher.

Mr. Virgin has donated many hours of his time (not to mention his own funds) to answer many, many requests to the Society. We know he deserves a rest from this task and we greatly appreciate all he has done for us. We thank him for a job "well done" and also carry the hope that at some future date he will again be available for help.

A NEW GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Congratulations to the WILL-GRUNDY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, our neighboring counties to the north and west, on the start of their new society. Their organizational meeting was held on August 11, 1982. Meetings will be at 7:00 p.m. on the second Wednesday each month at the Wilmington Township. Public Library, 201 South Kankakee Street, Wilmington, IL. Their mailing address is: Will-Grundy Genealogical Society, Wilmington Township Public Library, P. O. Box 24, Wilmington, IL 60481. Telephone number of the Library is (815) 476-6719. We know you will be a success.

CENTENNIAL

The Village of Grant Park, in northeastern Kankakee County, began celebrating on July 24, 1982, with monthly doings which will culminate in their centennial festivities July 21-24, 1983. September's celebration, on the 25th, will include an 1880's style show, demonstrations of lawn games, flower, art and craft shows and a flea market.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The following is copied from the June, 1982 Newsletter of the Illinois State Genealogical Society. The Kankakee Valle Gen. 'Soc. requests the help of all their members. Let's try for a 100% showing.

"Genealogists from all over the country have enthusiastically endorsed a program proposed by the Genealogical Coordinating; Committee in Indianapolis, May 1982, to solicit at least ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR PER GENEALOGIST for the creation of finding aids in genealogy at the U. S. National Archives for which there can be no government funding. Projects under consideration include:

- 1) finding aids for complete pension files for the American Revolution and the War of 1812
- 2) completing the index to Passport Applications, and microfilming the entire index
- 3) microfilming of Civil War Records (service records, volunteer records)

"You can help! Write a check in any amount, payable to ILLINOIS STATE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. Mark the check: ARCHIVES GIFT FUND. Your gift is tax-deductible and your cancelled check will be your receipt. The ISGS Treasurer, when sufficient monies have been received will mail a check payable to the FEDERATION OF GENEALOGICAL SOCIETIES.... (A photocopy of all checks sent to the Federation will be made and eventually filed as a record of donors at the National Archives.) When sufficient funds have accumulated for a specific finding aid, to be selected by the Genealogical Coordinating Committee in consultation with the staff of the National Archives, a check will be sent to the National Archives "Gift Fund" in an amount to cover that finding aid, and the genealogical community. will be notified when the aid becomes available.

"Gifts of $100 or more may be sent directly to the Federation of Genealogical Societies, Box 2201 Davenport Iowa 52805. (Checks should be marked ARCHIVES GIFT FUND.) Donors' names will be inscribed on a special Honor List."

We, the KVGS, requests that each one of our members send at least ONE DOLLAR (marked GIFT FUND) to: Karen Berdan, Research Librarian, Kankakee Public Library, P. O. Box 1659, Kankakee, IL 60901. At the end of this year, Karen will mail one check covering all our donations to the Illinois State Genealogical Society as our Society's contribution to this much-needed project. Thank you.

FATHER MEYER'S BOOK

The KVGS wishes to thank everyone for the response we have received on the reprint of the Rev. Joseph Meyer's 278 page, 1920 book Parish History of Saints Peter and Paul Church of Pilot and Sacred Heart Church in Goodrich (Illinois).

The publisher advises us that due to the economic situation they have had some difficulties and promises to have our books ready sometime in November. We thank you for your patience. We will mail them or advise you on pickup as soon as we receive them.

If you have not already ordered your copy, the next two pages will outline the book and you may use the order blank on Page 5.

ABOUT THE BOOK. . .

In 1919 Fr. Meyer of Sacred Heart Parish, Goodrich, Illinois began to compile a commemorative book for the 50th anniversary of his parish. His goal was to "perpetuate the names and the lineaments" of his pioneer parishners. After a decade of painstaking research, interviews, and editing, Fr. Meyer produced a book that has become a treasure to the descendants of his parishners. This valuable book contains a wealth of information. Some of the information in this book is not even available in the country of origin due to the destruction of records. Certainly the numerous photos of families would constitute a treasure in itself.

The high demand for this book among the pioneers' descendants has prompted the Kankakee Valley Genealogical Society to republish this fascinating work to which they have added a surname index.

A "THUMB-NAIL" SKETCH OF ORIGINS ON COUNTIES OF KANKAKEE, IROQUOIS AND WILL

In 1784 Virginia surrendered all claims to the Northwest Territory to the general government. County organization in Illinois dates back to 1779 with the organization of the "County of Illinois" but was not effective and was known as the Illinois Territory until 1790. (Our area was located in the Indiana Territory). On June 20, 1790, we were part of Knox County until Feb 3, 1801 when county boundries were changed and we belonged to St.Clair County (also Territory of Indiana). In 1809 we were attached to Illinois Territory and is of September 14, 1812, we became part of Madison County. On November 28, 1814, Edwards County was formed from over threefourths of the Eastern half of the State of Ill.

December 31, 1816, Crawford County was formed out of all but the most southern section of Edwards County. Clarke County came into being the same way on March 22, 1819. On January 31, 1821, Pike County took over the northern part of the state from the Illinois River and Kankakee (Theokiki) River north. South of the Kankakee River remained with Clarke.

On January 3, 1823, Edgar County included what is now Iroquois, Ford, Eastern Will and that part of Kankakee County south of the Kankakee River and that part east of a line 24 miles from the Indiana State Line. The rest of Kankakee County, being Rockville and a portion of Bourbonnais Townships, and Western Will County becoming part of Fulton County. Again the Illinois River and Kankakee River became the boundry line between Edgar County on the South and Putnam County on the North on January 13, 1825. And, on Jan. 18, 1826, Vermillion replaced Edgar County as our seat of government. On Jan. 15, 1831, Cook County came into being and extended down to the north one-half of what is now Will County. Vermillion claimed the rest.

On February 26, 1833, Iroquois County was formed Incorporating most of the south one-half of what is now Will County, all of Kankakee County except the two townships of Essex and Norton on the west and alltof what is the present Iroquois County. Vermillion County claimed the rest of

Will County, the two townships of western Kankakee County, the south-east part of what is now Livingston County and the area which is now Ford County.

On January 12, 1836, Will County was formed from the southern portion of Cook County and the northern portion of Iroquois County with the Kankakee River as its southern boundary.

Kankakee County was the third from the last county to be established. Being formed from the two townships from Vermillion County, the southern portion of Will County and the northern portion of Iroquois County. Ford County was the last to be established on February 17, 1859.

The above was excerpted from a 65 page booklet compiled and published by ex-Secretary of State, Paul Powell, titled Counties of Illinois Their Origin and Evolution, With Twenty-Three Maps Showing the Original and the Present Boundary Lines of Each County of the State.
