WHOOPS, WE GOOFED!!!

In Vol. 12, No. L. (November - 1982) "A Voyage To The United States, June - July 1848", contributed by Mrs. Toni Betourne, we committed one of the cardinal sins of Genealogy. We neglected to give credit where credit was due. Please accept our humble apologies, Mr. Roland Brosseau of Ste. Hiacynth, Quebec, Canada for the translation from French to English of this diary.

SURNAME INDEX - Addendum No. 1

A Complete Surname Index cross-referenced to past and current members No. 1 through No. 220 was published in February - 1982, (Vol. 12 No. 1). Copies of this issue are still available for $1.50.

The following is an addition to that index. The numbers following the surname is the member's number. The letter "A" when used means the surname is from the husband's chart. The letter "B" is the wife's chart. When no ancestor charts are on file of if it is unknown exactly whose charts they are, only the membership number is used.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR AMATEUR GENEALOGISTS

- I. I am a genealogist dedicated to seeking and recording "the
- II. Thou shalt use family traditions with caution and only as clues.
- III. Thou shalt not accept as truth every written record or printed word.
- IV. Thou shalt not hang nobility, royalty, or famous rabbis on my family tree without verifying the lineage with experts.
- V. Thou shalt clearly label the truth and the fairy tale.
- VI. Thou shalt handle all records carefully so that the next user will find them in the same condition I did.
- VII. Thou shalt credit those who help me and ask permission of those whose work I use.
- VIII. Thou shalt not impose on any source of information without supplying postage, preferably a self addressed stamped envelope. (S.A.S.E.)
- IX. Thou shalt respect the sensitivities of the living in whatever I record, but tell the truth about the dead.
- X. Thou shalt not profess to be a genealogical teacher or authority without appropriate training and accreditation.

DOCUMENTING U.S. CITIZENSHIP IN THE MIDWEST

Also, in the above mentioned copy of SEARCH on pages 6 through 9, there is a very informative article written by Bobbie Berkowitz, treasurer of their society, titled as here shown.

This article gives the names of archives, record centers and courts along with addresses, telephone numbers and also the hours and persons to contact. She even lists dates and records available.

I truly believe that the information contained in these four pages will be well worth your effort to obtain copies for your research files.
