THE EAST END

Taken from The Kankakee Gazette, January 11, 1877

The Grant school house is to be newly and fashionably seated.

The News says that Frank Campbell's house caught fire a short time ago and came very near being consumed.

At the Christmas Dance at the National Hotel the hail was literally crammed. A good many married people were there and they seemed to enjoy the dance as well, if not better than the young people. At the New Year's dance it was the same thing.

Patrick Burchard lost last fall between 50 and 60 hogs of cholera. Their weight was from 100 to 250 pounds each.

They complained bitterly of sneak thieves in Grant. If a man hitches his horse to a hitching post, or even under any of the church sheds in the village, he is liable to lose everything left in the wagon or sleigh.

A Polander, employed on Levi Haslett's farm, was badly wounded the other day by the accidental discharge of a gun. The load took effect in his side and face.

The following gentlemen were installed recently as officers of Momence Lodge, No. 481, A.F. and A.M.: W. D. Lane, W.M., S. N. Metcalf, S.W., Mat Campbell, J.W.: J. Ruger, Treas; W. G. Nichols, Sec'y; Thos. Manning, S.D., Wm. Astle, J.D.; Oren Scramlin, Tyler; Van Teeter, S.S.; S. O. Duvall, J.S.

The Eugene ice company have filled their house in Momence. It took a little over 2,600 cakes of ice to make one layer, and three layers was considered a good day's work. The ice is cut 22 inches square. The ice house is 33 feet high, and is filled to the height of 30 feet. The cost of filling the house is about $8,000, and the cost of emptying it will be near $5,000. The house holds 7,000 tons.
